

Susan K. Beatty Scholarship

Eligibility Requirements

CHEA intends to award a $1,000 scholarship each year to one graduating home educated student who is continuing education at a college, university, or accredited career or vocational school.

Please review this instruction sheet and Application Form Cover Sheet carefully so you understand the requirements.

Applications must be submitted to CHEA no later than February 28. The Scholarship Application Cover Sheet and all attachments must be typed. No handwritten applications will be accepted.

Applications not submitted in proper order or by the deadline will be automatically disqualified. To be eligible for the scholarship, applicants must meet all of the following criteria:

Student Eligibility

1. Applicants must have been privately homeschooled (not enrolled in a public school program), with their parents teaching them at home at least 51% of the time and at least 51% of the academic subjects, for at least the last four years.*
2. Applicants must be at least 16 by December 1 and no older than 19 on June 30.
3. Applicants' parents must have been CHEA Members at least since August 1, 2024 and maintain their membership through July 31, 2026.
4. Applicants must be accepted for admission to a college (including community college), university, or accredited career/vocational school the following August/September of the next school year.
5. Applicants must be able to attend the Saturday morning Opening Session of the Annual Convention, if selected to receive the Scholarship. CHEA will provide for transportation and one night's housing for the scholarship winner and one parent if he or she lives more than 100 miles from the Convention site.

*For the purposes of this scholarship, the student must have been taught at home by his/her parents at least 51% of the time and at least 51% of the academic subjects to be considered homeschooled. Courses taken other places, i.e. college courses taken during high school, co-op courses, etc., should be noted.

Employees and staff of CHEA, Board of Directors, Regional Advisory Board Members, or their immediate families are not eligible for the scholarship.

Application Requirements

Application Requirements

The following items are to be submitted, in the order listed:

- Current CHEA Scholarship Application
- Signed Permission to Print & Photographic Release Forms (two pages at the end of this packet). CHEA may wish to print the scholarship winner's essay and/or photograph in one or more of its publications and/or on the website (www.cheaofca.org). CHEA may wish to print essays submitted by other candidates.
- Two Letters of Recommendation. Applicants should select an adult from two different categories from the following:
 - Support group or PSP leader
 - Co-op teacher
 - Community group leader (such as American Heritage Girls, Trail Life, 4-H, etc.)
 - Volunteer supervisor
 - Employer
 - Pastor, church elder, or small group leader
 - Parent or legal guardian who has acted as the primary teacher of record

Letters could include the length of time the author has known the student, assessment of the student's spiritual maturity, leadership and volunteer work, academic achievement, character development, and areas of special achievement, and the student's potential as a representative of private Christian home education to his/her community and future college.

Letters should refer to the student as "candidate," "student," "young person," etc. and should be no more than one page in length.

- Essay from the student addressing the student's home education experience (academics and any extracurricular activities) and Christian faith and how these prepared them for and influenced them toward their chosen field(s) of study and plans for the future.
 - Essay should be approximately 500 - 800 words and may be edited for length, content, and/or grammatical style prior to publication by CHEA's Communications Team.
 - Essays should include a title.
- Student transcript of high school work, including first semester of the current year's work. Courses taken during high school which were taught either outside the home or by someone other than the parent should be clearly designated.
- SAT, ACT, or CLT scores (optional)
- Letter of acceptance from the college, university, or career/vocational school which the student plans to attend. If the applicant has not received a letter of acceptance from the college in time to include it with his/her application, the rest of the application should be sent to CHEA by the February 28 deadline. The college's letter of acceptance must be submitted by March 30, 2024.

All application requirements should be compiled and submitted to CHEA by the applicant in one email. Applications must be submitted to scholarship@cheaofca.org by 11:59 p.m. on February 28, 2025. Please contact us at scholarship@cheaofca.org or by phone at 562-864-2432 if an alternate submission method is necessary.

Applicants will be notified by email of the scholarship results by the first week of May. No funds will be issued to the student. The scholarship award will be sent directly to the college to be applied to the student's tuition or curriculum costs. In the event the student does not attend the college in the fall term, he must notify CHEA no later than September 1 indicating the reason for the delay. CHEA will hold the scholarship funds until the spring term. Otherwise, the scholarship will be forfeited.
